Captains Courageous is my favorite Rudyard Kipling story and atypical for him. This is an upbuilding coming-of-age story about a rich kid who was washed overboard and picked up by a fishing schooner and made to work. It features an ultimately likeable main character who improves himself. Very readable and full of action.

Love Kipling and love Captains Courageous so, on a whim, I bought this leather-bound version for $20 because I saw that it had been priced at $200. It's $50 as I write this on Dec. 1, 2008. Well, it's leather bound and it's legible and it's Kipling, but I guess I don't know enough about leather binding to know if I really got a good deal or what.
