The actual Legends of the fall story differs a bit from the movie but the movie still follows it for the most part. Somehow the stories are more grim in the book version and both of these movies are pretty dark so that is saying something. I think this is a book that can be enjoyed very much but it may take awhile to get used to.

Legends of the Fall is an epic, melodramatic western wartime romance no matter which way you absorb it - through text or through images. However, the 1994 adaptation of Jim Harrison's written work takes the essence of the story and brings it to new heights, making it quite a bit more enjoyable than the novella in my mind.
