The Mountains Rise is the start of the prequel series to Manning's excellent Mageborn series. Normally, I'm not a fan of prequels. Usually, it's just fleshing out information you just know, but he's delving into events so far in the past with many questions not answered in the first series, that makes it interesting to read.

The Mountains Rise is Michael G. Manning's best book by far and that is saying something with all his other excellent stories. This story is a prequell of sorts, it tells the tale of Daniel the first Arch Mage a man that wants to be good but circumstances drive him down another path that at times is truly heart breaking.
